BUT CALL US...

We're Joslyn Clark Controls, and there may be good news for you if you're a distributor or user of motor controls who thought it was no longer possible to get replacements or parts for older units which were supposedly out of production.

In the past, when we were called Clark, or Clark Controls, we supplied some of our rugged, superbly crafted motor controls under the names of Sylvania and A.O. Smith. Today we're still producing many of those same products, including the Ward Leonard Industrial Motor Control, under our Joslyn Clark name.

We're the Motor Control specialists. . .
